

Trustworthy Realty operating by the Golden Rule

Chrissie Griffin, owner/broker of Trustworthy Realty, LLC, 3750 W. Main, AA140, considers it a success when she is able to fulfill someone's dream of home ownership.

She also believes success comes from turning clients into close friends, and from being friends with the Realtors she works with.

"I got involved in real estate because I wanted to work with people and help them achieve their dream of owning a home," Chrissie said. For her nothing is a stumbling block to success: "Everything is and has been a learning experience. You learn, live, change, and adjust every day, regardless of what the situation is."

Norman is an excellent place to own a real estate business because of the wide variety of culture and people and the variety of real estate properties available.

As real estate is a profession in which she must always learn and change, and grow to adapt to the market as it changes, Chrissie expects continuing education to be part of her success story.

Her motto for Trustworthy Realty is "Do unto others a you would have them do unto you," because, she said, "We make a commitment to provide the best

"Believe in yourself and never focus on anything negative."

services and the most ethical decisions for our clients. We believe in kindness, acceptance, working hard, a positive attitude, and giving back to the community," she said. "And first and foremost we believe in educating our clients about the options available to them and the basics of real estate sales."

Chrissie has her ePro designation from the National Association of Realtors and is a member of the Norman Chamber of Commerce.

Trustworthy Realty can be reached at 292-6900 or on the web at www.TrustworthyRealty.com.

On a personal note, Chrissie enjoys going to her son Lance's football games and spending time with her two Boxers, Duke and Bunky, and her cat, Tom Cat. She also enjoys fishing, politics, and storm chasing photography.
